The Journal of Correctional Education Index - 1994

Adams, J. Q. The Multicultural Need in Corrections Education, June, 83 - 85.

Arbenz, Richard L. In our Lifetime: A Reformist View of Correctional Education, March, 30 - 37.

Askins, Billy E. & Young, Theresa. An Action Research Project to Assist Incarcerated Females to Become More Effective Adult Learners, March, 12 - 17.

Bedard, Laura, Eschholz, Sarah, & Gertz, Marc. Perceptions of Crime and Education Within the Hispanic Community and The Impact on Corrections, June, 72 - 80.

Burns-Stowers, Roseanne. Education: The Answer Juvenile Crime—A Reflective Look, June, 60.

Christenberry, Nola J. & Burns, John L., Dickinson, Gerald B. Gains in Educational Achievement by Inmates During the Arkansas Prison Boot Camp Program, September, 128 - 132.

Clemons, Mae O. The Florida Department of Corrections is Practicing Non-Traditional Correctional Management and Administration With a Great Deal of Success, June, 100 - 106.

Felton, Thom L. The Learning Modes of an Incarcerated Population, September, 118 - 121.

Franklin, Godfrey & Platt, John S. How Cultural Assumptions May Affect Teaching, Learning, and Communication in the Nation's Prisons, June, 86 - 91.

Garland, Anne Amber, Guild, Pat, & Veluce, Robin. Incarceration and Cognitive Style: Connections and Implications, December, 164 - 171..

Gould, Leroy C. & Gertz, Marc. Race and Gender Effects on Perception of Criminal Events: Testing Hypotheses from Black's The Behavior of Law, June, 62 - 70.

Kersting, Joseph. Correctional Education and People of Color: The Beginning of a Dialogue, June, 56 - 59.

Lindner, Reinhard W. Self-Regulated Learning in Correctional Education Students and Its Implications for Instruction, September, 122 - 126.

Miller, Darcy. Exploring Gender Differences in Suicidal Behavior Among Adolescent Offenders: Findings and Implications, September, 134 - 138.

North, Jeanne M. & Annis, William. New Hampshire's State-Sentenced Female Offender, March, 38 - 47.

Orlov, Valerie. Keynote Address: 1994 CEA Leadership Conference, March, 4 - 7.

Peters, Howard A., III. The Illinois Department of Corrections: Educational Commitment to Minority Issues, June, 108 - 110.

Platt, Jennifer M. & Beech, Martha. The Effectiveness of Learning Strategies in Improving Performance and Increasing the Independence of Juvenile Offenders with Learning Problems, March 18 - 24.

Pollard, Richard R., Pollard, Constance J., & Meers, Gary. Determining Effective Transition Strategies for Adjudicated Youth With Disabilities: A National Delphi Study, December, 190 - .

Sametz, Lynn, Ahren, Joseph, & Yuan, Steven, Rehabilitation Youth Through Housing Rehabilitation, September, 142 - 150.

Strawderman, Jerry Arnold. The Incarcerated Adult Basic Education Student: A Qualitative Study, December, 172 - 185.

Taliento, Neil, & Pearson, Thomas. Building Alternatives, June, 96 - 99.

Thorn, J. Michael. Not Just White and Male Anymore: A Pluralist Approach to Teaching History in the Post-Secondary Prison Classroom, June, 92 - 95.

Wilson, Paul R. Recidivism and Vocational Education, December, 158 - 163.

The Journal of Correctional Education Index - 1994

Adams, J. Q. The Multicultural Need in Corrections Education, June, 83 - 85.

Arbenz, Richard L. In our Lifetime: A Reformist View of Correctional Education, March, 30 - 37.

Askins, Billy E. & Young, Theresa. An Action Research Project to Assist Incarcerated Females to Become More Effective Adult Learners, March, 12 - 17.

Bedard, Laura, Eschholz, Sarah, & Gertz, Marc. Perceptions of Crime and Education Within the Hispanic Community and The Impact on Corrections, June, 72 - 80.

Burns-Stowers, Roseanne. Education: The Answer Juvenile Crime—A Reflective Look, June, 60.

Christenberry, Nola J. & Burns, John L., Dickinson, Gerald B. Gains in Educational Achievement by Inmates During the Arkansas Prison Boot Camp Program, September, 128 - 132.

Clemons, Mae O. The Florida Department of Corrections is Practicing Non-Traditional Correctional Management and Administration With a Great Deal of Success, June, 100 - 106.

Felton, Thom L. The Learning Modes of an Incarcerated Population, September, 118 - 121.

Franklin, Godfrey & Platt, John S. How Cultural Assumptions May Affect Teaching, Learning, and Communication in the Nation's Prisons, June, 86 - 91.

Garland, Anne Amber, Guild, Pat, & Veluce, Robin. Incarceration and Cognitive Style: Connections and Implications, December, 164 - 171..

Gould, Leroy C. & Gertz, Marc. Race and Gender Effects on Perception of Criminal Events: Testing Hypotheses from Black's The Behavior of Law, June, 62 - 70.

Kersting, Joseph. Correctional Education and People of Color: The Beginning of a Dialogue, June, 56 - 59.

Lindner, Reinhard W. Self-Regulated Learning in Correctional Education Students and Its Implications for Instruction, September, 122 - 126.

Miller, Darcy. Exploring Gender Differences in Suicidal Behavior Among Adolescent Offenders: Findings and Implications, September, 134 - 138.

North, Jeanne M. & Annis, William. New Hampshire's State-Sentenced Female Offender, March, 38 - 47.

Orlov, Valerie. Keynote Address: 1994 CEA Leadership Conference, March, 4 - 7.

Peters, Howard A., III. The Illinois Department of Corrections: Educational Commitment to Minority Issues, June, 108 - 110.

Platt, Jennifer M. & Beech, Martha. The Effectiveness of Learning Strategies in Improving Performance and Increasing the Independence of Juvenile Offenders with Learning Problems, March 18 - 24.

Pollard, Richard R., Pollard, Constance J., & Meers, Gary. Determining Effective Transition Strategies for Adjudicated Youth With Disabilities: A National Delphi Study, December, 190 - .

Sametz, Lynn, Ahren, Joseph, & Yuan, Steven, Rehabilitation Youth Through Housing Rehabilitation, September, 142 - 150.

Strawderman, Jerry Arnold. The Incarcerated Adult Basic Education Student: A Qualitative Study, December, 172 - 185.

Taliento, Neil, & Pearson, Thomas. Building Alternatives, June, 96 - 99.

Thorn, J. Michael. Not Just White and Male Anymore: A Pluralist Approach to Teaching History in the Post-Secondary Prison Classroom, June, 92 - 95.

Wilson, Paul R. Recidivism and Vocational Education, December, 158 - 163.